ST. LOUIS ARGUMENT

JACKSONVILLE, ILL.

NOT SPRING, ARK.

By Peter M. Lee
Last Monday, Sept. 23, this city was filled with enthusiasm marking the beginning of the Fourth Liberty Loan Drive. A remark made by a colored man, which seems to be representative of the general feeling, was: "We are leading this Nation some money in his hand, and tak at home and abroad." Not Springs now be correctly called a Baptist city. The city of Baptist ministers who were delegates to the two wings of the National Baptist Convention which held its sessions at St. Louis and Little Rock, Sept. 23. Hon. Fred H. H. of Arkansas, died last week at his home, Pine Bluff, Ark. He left a fortune of $100,000 to his wife and five children. Not Springs boasts of having the most important and representative colored people in this country. The widow is ideal in structure and arrangement. The spiritual structure is high and appeals to the intellect of the votaries. It is nothing unusual to see large numbers of colored white visitors to the Springs, regular upon attendance at the church service, not for mere edification, but for spiritual and intellectual education. This church is by name, the Episcopal Baptist Church, with the wholeness and gift of J. T. Hill, its pastor. Fraternal organizations are developing here and are rapidly increasing in Arkansas. The Masonic Temple founded by Hon. J. T. Hill, eight years ago, has increased its membership fifty per cent and invested $100,000. The Liberty Bonds. The Circle of Friends founded by Dr. R. A. Williams six years ago has 15,000 members and invested $50,000 in Liberty Bonds. An Arkansas State Constitutional Convention adjourned here some days after a session of six months during which time, not a single anti-Negro measure was proposed or even introduced. The war may yet bring about strange results.

Mrs. Caroline Taylor, of St. Louis, is expected after three weeks' absence. Stewardson Board No. 1 of St. Calvary C. M. E. Church held a very interesting meeting at the church Monday afternoon. NEELYVILLE, MO.

Mr. George Keiser, of St. Louis, was the soloist. Miss Ruth Pendleton, of Washington, will convey the two cars from the County Fair to Neelyville. Mrs. J. H. Turner, of Hot Springs, Ark., spent a few days with friends at Neelyville. Mrs. Lela Bryant is chairman. Arrie Taylor, secretary. A. U. S. Soldiers Were First to Cross the Ourcq Led by Lieut. Patrick Dowling of New York.

AMERICAN troops have played a wonderful part in the recent fighting north of the Marne. By the capture of the towns of Serres-en-Maine, Serres and Nanterre beyond the Ourcq, they placed the French in taking France-Gardonne, the great German concentration base near the center of the Belgium-Belgian front. American troops were first to cross the Ourcq River, the entire northern bank of which is now held by the Allies. Lieut. Patrick Dowling of New York led the first down the river. With him were Capt. James McClellan and Private Thomas Lofers of Brooklyn. The 4th 9th of New York, now the 16th, aided the Allies in crossing the river. The Americans are fighting doggedly and with courage. Their capture of Ourcq was brilliant, and included house-to-house fighting, in which the Yankees took terrible toll of the enemy.

"Keep Going!"

That's the only way to win, and Lieutenant "Pat" Dowling knew it, when he plunged into the Ourcq with his little detachment from the "Fighting Sixty-Ninth."

Keep on going with a whoop!

They'll do it, our boys "over there," whatever regiment they belong to, whatever section of this great country they came from.

They'll GET THERE, too; if we follow their example and keep going here at home.

Our work is cut out for us, as plain as theirs is for them. Keep them fit; give them every piece of fighting gear they need, to do their job up brown. Send as many million men—as can be used to finish it up quick.

The faster we keep going the faster our boys "over there" will go. Let's set the pace in Liberty Loan subscriptions.

We can finish up this Fourth Loan in two days if every one will.

Believing that it is the duty of every person who enjoys the freedom and privileges of citizenship in our great country to do his utmost to help win the war, the following firms and individuals have patriotically contributed the money to pay for this and other advertisements of the Fourth Liberty Loan:

Be a Volunteer

September 28th and 29th Will Be Volunteer Days

On these days everyone will be given an opportunity to step up and buy bonds without being solicited to do so. Places will be designated where volunteer subscriptions will be received. These places will be announced in the papers and by signs. Your card will be on file there. Cards of those who do not volunteer will be used for active solicitation, which will begin Monday, September 30th. No one will be overlooked.

Do not wait for some one to come after your subscription. Show that you, too, can volunteer for your country's service, just as our boys "over there" did.

Figure out now the very maximum you can subscribe. Be ready when Volunteer Days come. This is no time for half-way measures. Half-way measures won't push our boys across the Rhine. It is up to us to buy bonds with every uninvested dollar we own, plus every dollar we can save by careful, frugal living for six months to come.

You don't have to pay all cash for your bonds. You can make your first payment from cash in the bank, and take care of the balance out of your daily, weekly or monthly savings.

The forced saving you do now will mean a nice nest egg later, for the bonds you buy now and pay for as you go along, will prove a splendid investment that will pay you a good interest every six months. After the war, the bonds will be worth more than you paid for them. Don't hesitate to do your duty and do it quickly. "Don't let the SON go down."

As event of great and even historic importance to the entire people of the city, Imperial is presenting the brilliant "Imperial" Monday evening at the Imperial Theatre, 15th and Pine Streets, in the presence of a splendid audience of its own people of high character and world-renowned fame.

The master of ceremonies, Mr. Joseph Hart, introduced various able speakers, whose eloquent addresses were listened to with profound attention.

Mr. W. L. Williams, Principal of the Senior High School, in the course of his highly instructive and entertaining remarks, called attention to the fact that the time was rapidly approaching for the colored people to have a free choice theatre of their own, and that their right to have one was in line with the principles of democracy.

The show then was fighting in the great war, Judge Charles W. Hart, chief of the Probate Court, included in his speech some happy allusions to the equality of men in not only in the Constitution of the United States and Declaration of Independence, but also in the minds of himself and countless in a time of unexampled national unity.
